Note

Section 19A of the Child Employment Act 2003 extends the application of this Act to the supervision of a child in employment that requires a permit under that Act as if the supervision were child-related work under this Act.

The Child Employment Act 2003 applies to a child of or over 14 years of age and under 15 years of age undertaking a work experience arrangement referred to in section 5.4.11(4) of the Education and Training Reform Act 2006.

The operation of the Child Employment Act 2003 and its application to this Act has the effect that the supervision of the employment of a child undertaking that work experience arrangement is child-related work within the meaning of this Act.

Section 19A of the Child Employment Act 2003 provides that this is the case despite the general exclusions in sections 9(1)(b) and 9(8)(b) of this Act for work experience arrangements.

26A Jurisdiction of VCAT—category A

S. 26A

- (a) on a category A application (other than a person referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of section 12(1)); or
 - (b) because of a decision of the Secretary under section 21C(1) to revoke an assessment notice following a category A re-assessment (other than on the ground that the circumstances that required the re-assessment are those referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of section 21AB(1))— may apply to VCAT for an assessment notice to be given to him or her.

- (2) Pending the final determination of an application under subsection (1), VCAT may—
- (a) make an order staying the operation of the Secretary's decision; and
 - (b) make any other order it considers appropriate having regard to the matters set out in subsection (3).
- (3) VCAT must not make an order for the giving of an assessment notice on an application under subsection (1) unless it is satisfied that giving the notice would not pose an unjustifiable risk to the safety of children, having regard to—
- (a) the nature and gravity of the offence and its relevance to child-related work; and
 - (b) the period of time since the applicant committed the offence; and
 - (c) whether a finding of guilt or a conviction was recorded for the offence or a charge for the offence is still pending; and

 - (f) whether or not the conduct that constituted the offence has been decriminalised since the applicant engaged in it; and
 - (g) the applicant's behaviour since he or she committed the offence; and
 - (h) the likelihood of future threat to a child caused by the applicant; and
 - (i) any information given by the applicant in, or in relation to, the application; and
 - (j) any other matter that VCAT considers relevant to the application.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), in satisfying itself that giving an assessment notice would not pose an unjustifiable risk to the safety of children, VCAT must be satisfied that—
- (a) a reasonable person would allow his or her child to have direct contact with the applicant while the applicant was engaged in any type of child-related work; and
 - (b) the applicant's engagement in any type of child-related work would not pose an unjustifiable risk to the safety of children.
- (5) If, in accordance with this section, VCAT is satisfied that giving an assessment notice would not pose an unjustifiable risk to the safety of children, VCAT may by order direct the Secretary to give the assessment notice to the applicant if it is satisfied that, in all the circumstances, it is in the public interest to do so.

S. 26A(4)(a)

 - (b) if, under the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 1998, the person requests a statement of reasons for the decision, the day on which the statement of reasons is given to the person or the person is informed under section 46(5) of that Act that a statement of reasons will not be given.

26B Jurisdiction of VCAT—category B

- (1) In a review of a decision to give a negative notice on a category B application or in relation to a category B re-assessment, VCAT must determine that it is appropriate to refuse to give an assessment notice unless satisfied that giving the assessment notice would not pose an unjustifiable risk to the safety of children, having regard to any matters to which the Secretary must have regard under section 13(2).
- (2) In satisfying itself that giving an assessment notice would not pose an unjustifiable risk to the safety of children, VCAT must be satisfied that—
 - (a) a reasonable person would allow his or her child to have direct contact with the applicant while the applicant was engaged in any type of child-related work; and

A "legislative item" is a penalty, an example or a note. As from 13 October 2004, a legislative item relating to a provision of an Act is taken to be at the foot of that provision even if it is preceded or followed by another legislative item that relates to that provision. For example, if a penalty at the foot of a provision is followed by a note, both of these legislative items will be regarded as being at the foot of that provision. See section 36B.

- Other material

Any explanatory memorandum, table of provisions, endnotes, index and other material printed after the Endnotes does not form part of an Act. See section 36(3)(3D)(3E).
